HOW IT ALL STARTED

Intone Design was set up back in 1983 by former RAF engineer Roger Parrish and since then we have developed an enviable reputation for inspired kitchen design and bespoke cabinetry. But despite our impressive success, the emphasis remains on a personal approach which puts the customer firmly at the centre.

Roger has since been joined in the business by his daughter Laura and son-in-law Matt who lead a dedicated team of designers, craftsmen and fitters based at our Lincolnshire HQ. Life at Intone Design is very much a family affair and it shows. We care about each other and we care about our customers. Attention to detail and a passion for exemplary customer service lie at the heart of the Intone Design experience.

WHAT WE DO

We understand that your kitchen is the focal point of your home. It is where life is lived, memories are made and meals are shared and savoured. That is why we feel it is essential to choose the right expertise when it comes to designing a new kitchen which will reflect your personality and fulfil your unique requirements.

As a family-run business with more than 30 years' experience producing exquisite, bespoke kitchens, we feel we can provide the very best design and manufacturing expertise required to create your perfect kitchen.

From our Lincolnshire workshop, we manufacture custom-made cabinetry in a wide range of designs from classic styles to contemporary gloss finishes. We pride ourselves in offering above-and-beyond levels of customer service, putting you and your requirements at the centre of everything we do.

Quality, Care & Craftsmanship

With more than 30 years' experience producing bespoke kitchens and custom-made cabinetry, we can create your dream space tailored to your specific requirements. All the while offering our above-and-beyond levels of customer service.

OUR SHOWROOM

A visit to our of beautiful showrooms will mark the start of your design journey with us. Choose from our wide range of cabinetry styles which cover everything from classic woods in oak, walnut or maple through to contemporary gloss finishes. We will then arrange a time to come to your home to discuss both your functional and aesthetic requirements for your new kitchen. A tailored design will be created for you in the form of a fully-navigable online panoramic plan which enables you to envisage your new kitchen complete with appliances, furniture and lighting.

OUR WORKSHOP

Once you have given us the go-ahead to proceed with your new kitchen, the order will be sent through to our dedicated 19,000 sq ft workshop in Bourne, Lincolnshire, where all the elements of your bespoke kitchen will be made. Precision and quality are fundamental to our approach and the fact that we have full control of our own production facility means that we can take you from design to complete installation of your new kitchen within six weeks. And with every single component custom-made in a our workshop, you can be confident that your kitchen will be truly unique.

IT'S ALL ABOUT TRUST

'Working with Intone Design makes you feel that anything is possible. They understand the demands of busy working families and how important it is to have a kitchen design which really works. I put my trust in their knowledge and experience to help me make the right decisions. We now have a kitchen which we all love - it's light and airy and everything is where it should be. The result is a happier, calmer home.'

CUPBOARD LOVE

Our custom-built painted cabinetry creates stylish storage options to cover all your requirements

AN OASIS OF CALM

Classic, shaker-style units are combined with cool, white Corian worktops in this contemporary barn conversion. The stainless steel fridges and chrome cup handles lend an industrial edge to this light and airy kitchen.

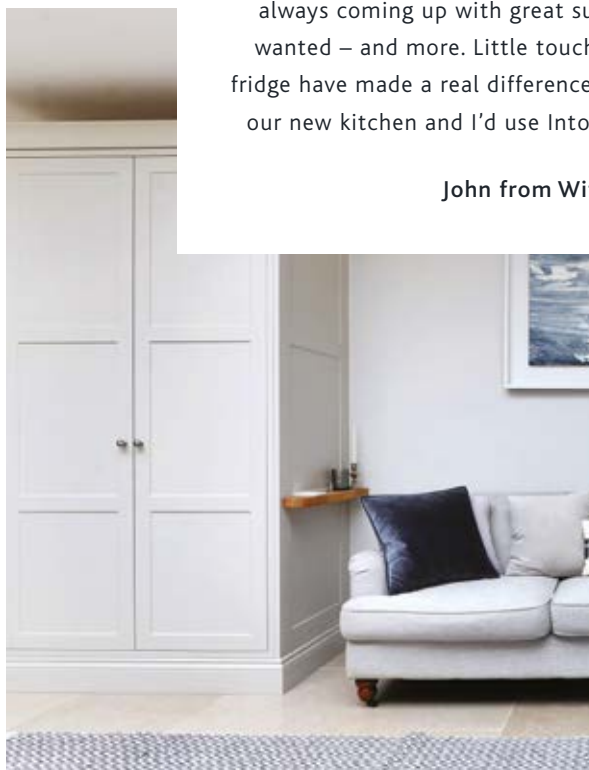

A KITCHEN BUILT WITH CARE

'I think the difference with Intone Design is that they really care about what they do. Throughout the design process, they were always on hand, always coming up with great suggestions. We got exactly what we wanted – and more. Little touches such as the wine rack above the fridge have made a real difference to the end result. We absolutely love our new kitchen and I'd use Intone again without a second thought.'

John from Witham-on-the-Hill

CURVE APPEAL

This impressive kitchen features matt charcoal units, a curved dining area and chic chrome accents. The addition of white stone worktops and a dramatic light fitting create a glamorous look.

A DREAM DINING AREA

The bespoke booth was created to allow the family to enjoy the magnificent views across the garden to Rutland Water while entertaining.

32

RETRO CHIC

Clean lines and varied textures come together to give a retro vibe to this stylish kitchen design. Perfect for entertaining and full of character.

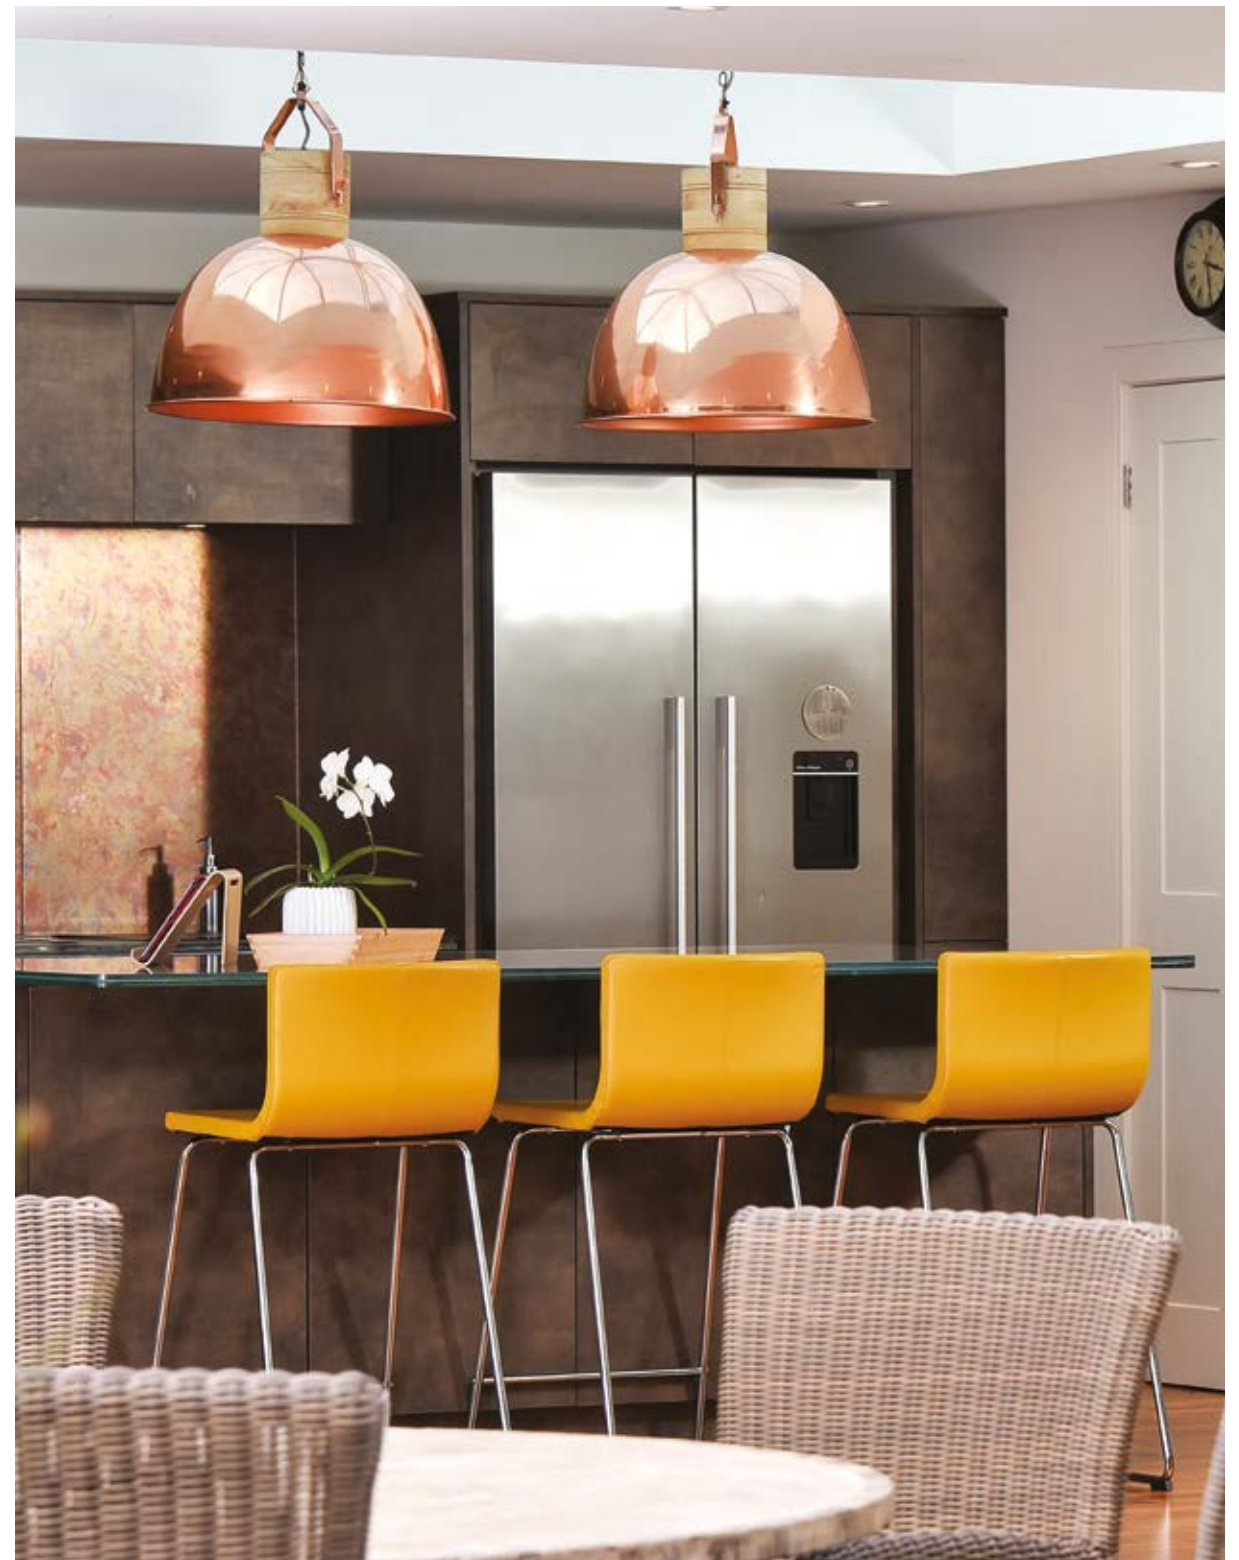

GREAT VALUE, GREAT SERVICE

'I was delighted with the service provided by Intone Design. I found them to be very professional and responsive to my wishes. There is a misconception that bespoke kitchens prove to be more expensive than an off-the-shelf product. My experience was that both the service and the finished product Intone Design delivered were far better than I could have expected from a standard kitchen company.'

I love my new kitchen!

Angela from Bulwick
